

J.R. Tietsort Joins Aura as Chief Information Security Officer

Tietsort to advance security strategy as the company enters next phase of growth

BURLINGTON, Mass., June 29, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Aura, a leading provider of comprehensive digital security solutions for consumers, today announced the appointment of J.R. Tietsort to Chief Information Security Officer (CISO). As CISO, Tietsort will lead Aura's Information Security team, working to protect the company's intellectual property and safeguard its operations.

"Information security is at the heart of our business," said Hari Ravichandran, founder and CEO of Aura. "I am confident that the addition of J.R. to our already strong information security team will ensure the protection of Aura's assets, employees and intellectual property as the company continues to grow."

Tietsort will lead Aura's information security program to maintain effective prevention, detection and response to emerging security threats.

"I'm excited to be joining Aura at a time where its growth is enabling new markets and customers," said Tietsort. "I look forward to jumping in and helping this team build new capabilities on a great platform, while maintaining the highest levels of trust from our customers."

Tietsort brings deep experience in building, maturing and scaling programs to reduce cyber risk at companies that must protect intellectual property and personal information-- both public and private institutions. Prior to joining Aura, J.R. was the CISO of Darktrace, a global cyber AI company and he additionally served as the CISO of Micron Technology, a global semiconductor manufacturer with operations in the U.S., Europe and Asia.
